

Can I use my trademark before it has been registered?

Yes. Registering a trademark gives the owner exclusive rights, though you are entitled to use it even without it being registered. However, until the trademark is registered, you cannot rely on the rights issued by the Trademarks Ordinance to the owner of a registered trademark.

National Trademarks has over 30 years of experience with these matters.

For free advice, please contact us at:

972-2-566-45-83

Or

tami@national-trademarks.com